LEEWAY 1968

STAUNTON PUBLIC LIBRARY

Robert E. Lee High is no new and modern building like the new junior highs who robbed Lee of a Freshmen Class. Lee is not lacking because she is a school of tradition and memories and happy times shared by all. Here, new and better things can take place. Yes, "IT WAS A DIFFERENT YEAR."

Band members display new and different uniforms.

Majorettes add variety to the half-time entertainment.

Mini and Mod.

Fashions play a major role
in the life of all
the students.
This year fashions
took a turn
with a display of
mini-skirts . . .
plaid slacks . . .
chukka boots . . .
turtleneck sweaters . . .
groovy earrings . . .
and monograms, monograms, monograms.

1956?

Do your ears hang low?

Mr. Roberson calculates profits of a sheep farm.

Did you catch that?

The classroom also put
on a new face with
overhead projectors . . .
language labs . . .
teachers assigned to new rooms . . .
a little gym, again . . .
Students see a different

But I just combed my hair!

*I've really enjoyed being in your class. I don't see how you can
forget those crazy nice
skits. Have a nice
summer and we'll
see you around.
Donna Barton*

New faces appear at Lee.

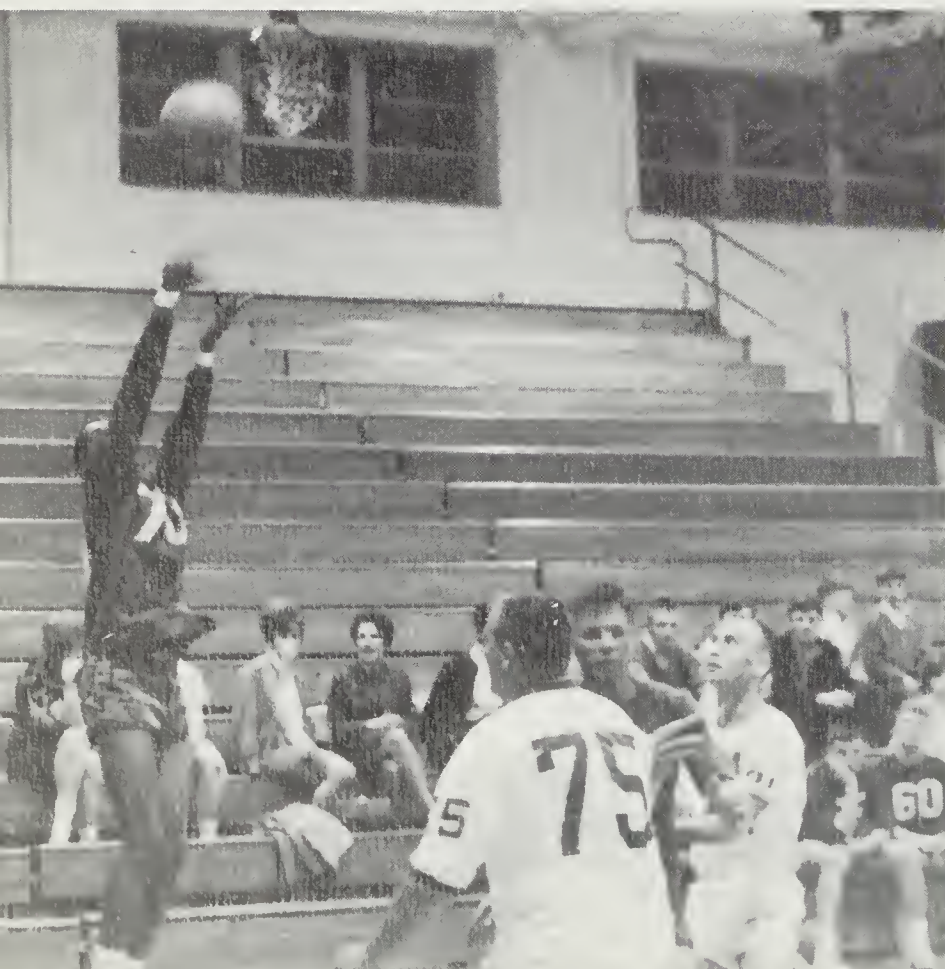

One—two—three—four.

Homecoming '67

Student Faculty—Varsity Game.

A-C-T-I-O-N

Action, action,
we want some action . . .
just dropped in to see
what condition my condition was in . . .
up, up and away . . .
Groovin' on a Sunday
afternoon . . .

The Big Three.

"The Talent Explosion"

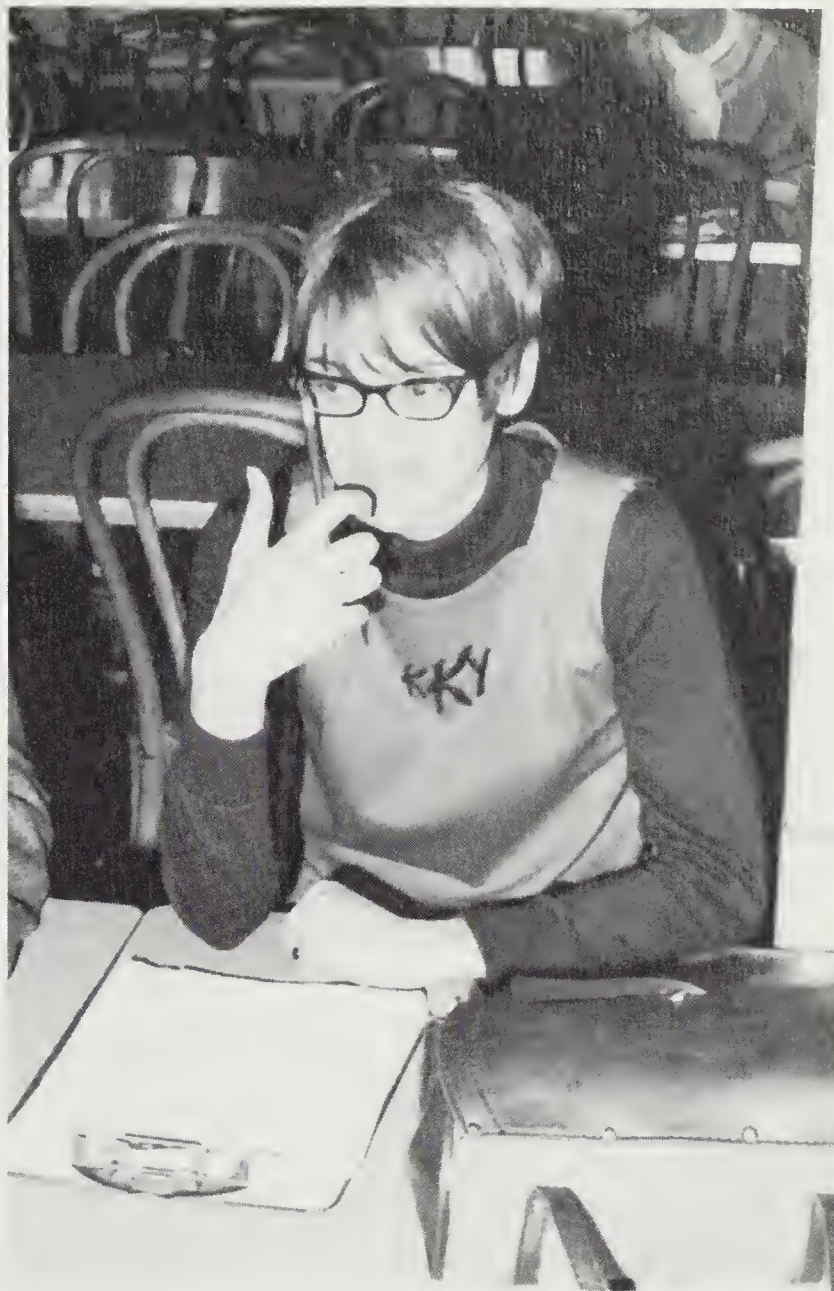

Monday, Monday . . .

Darn you, Hobbie!

Mod moods
range from
the Monday morning blahs
to the
blow your mind weekends . . .
groovy times . . .
fun times . . .
bad times.

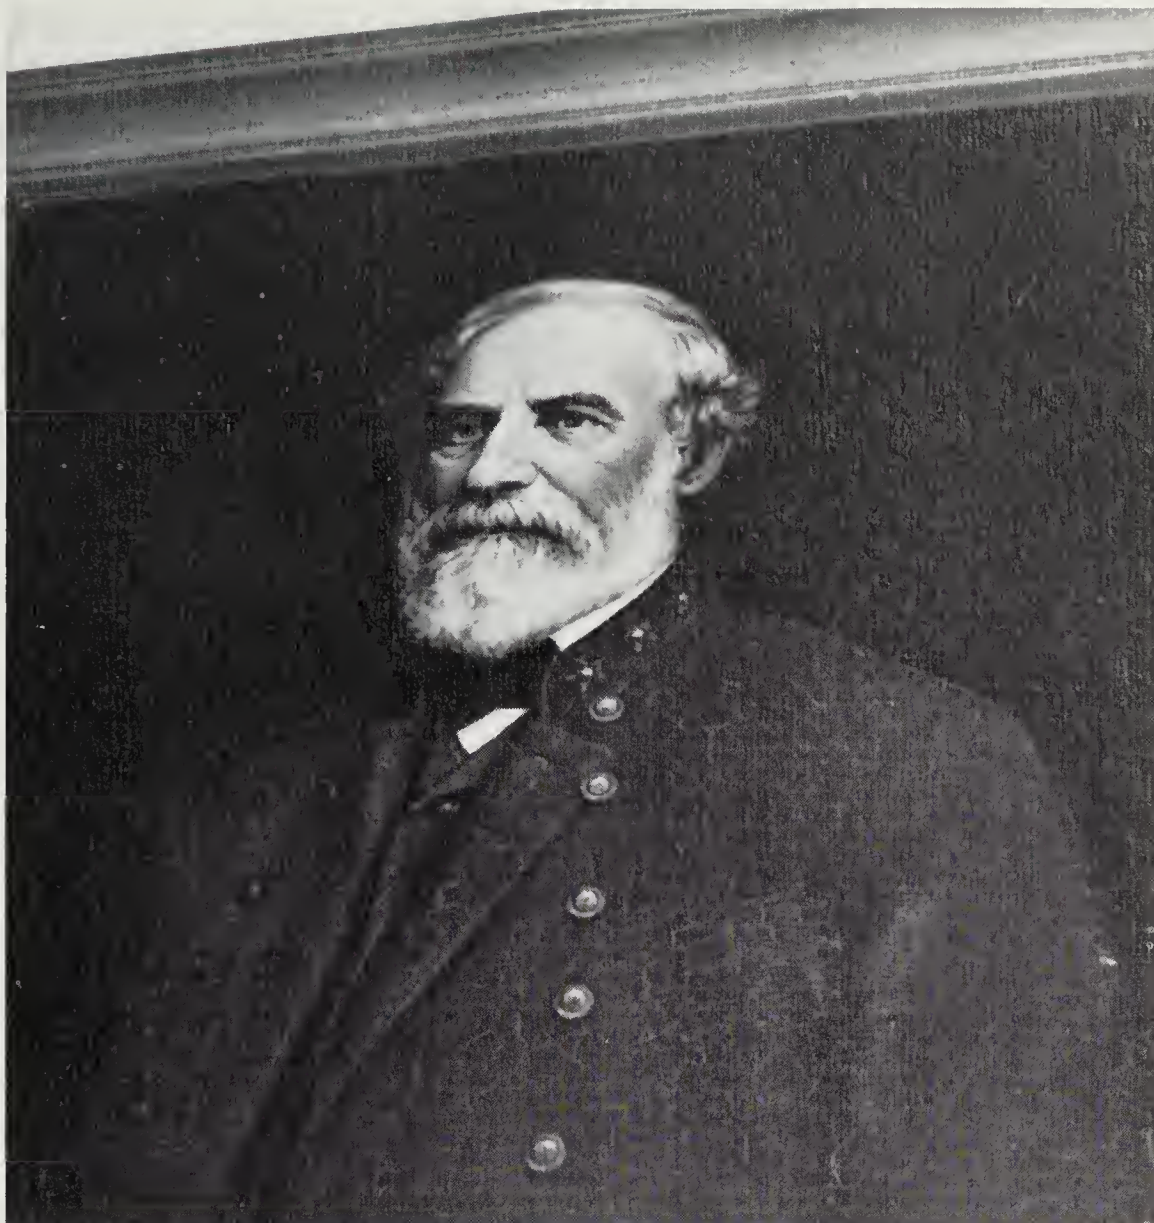

You're kidding, aren't you?

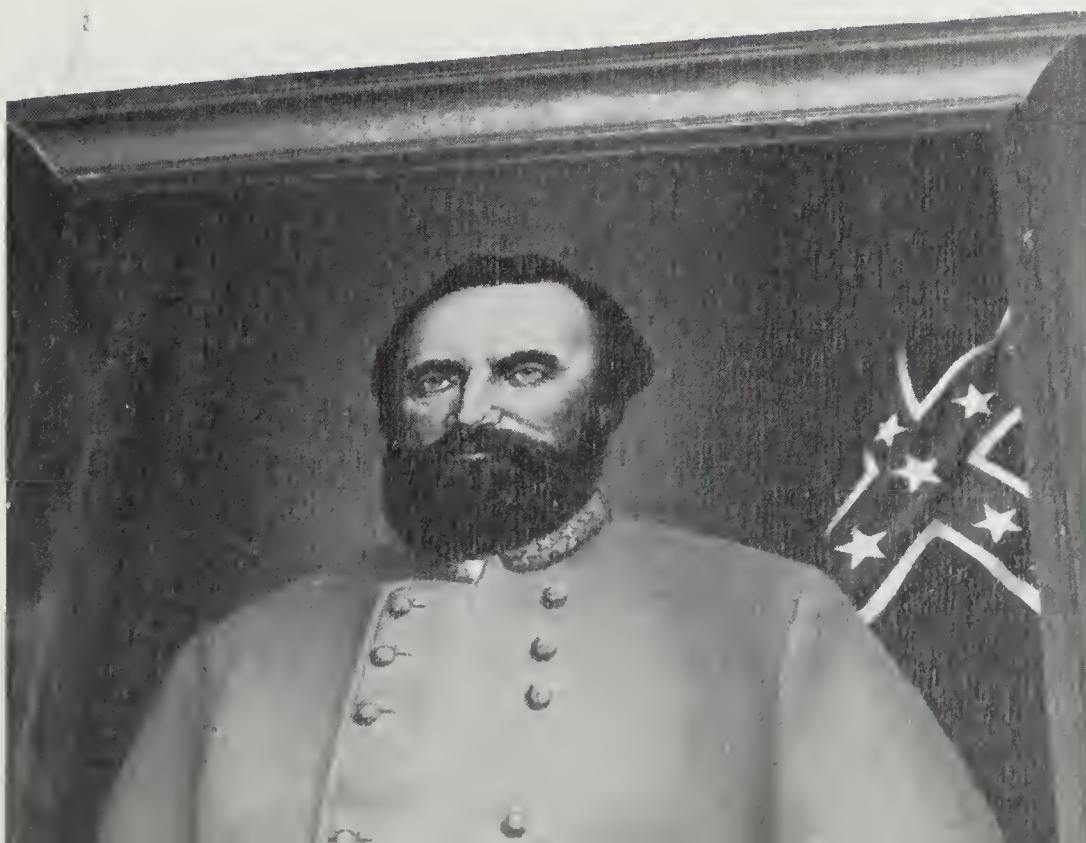

Aw! right, now!

Coach Conger jokes with Co-Captains Wayne Cox, 12, and Ronnie Masincup, 70.

Speedster Randy Sumey turns right end and leads downfield for big yardage.

The Lee defense held opponents to 41 points, the lowest total in the school's football history. The Leemen specialized in gang tackling. Here Keith Spitzer, 10, Randy Sumey, 26, and Bob Depew, 86, converge on a Buena Vista ball carrier.

Leemen Blow Past First Five Opponents

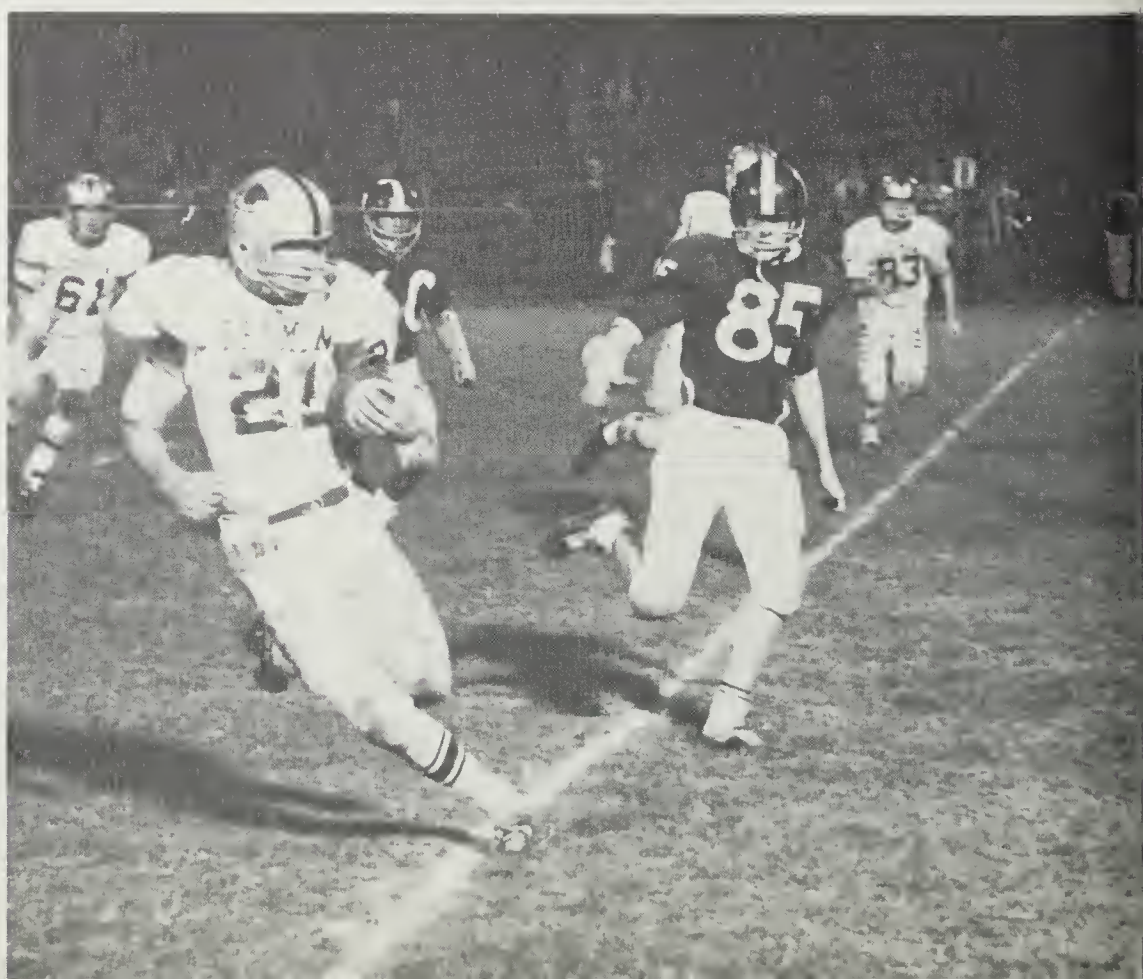

Pursuit is a key to good defense. Ronnie Masincup and Dayton Hypes, 80, fight to bring down an opposing runner.

Ken McAllister bulls his way against Waynesboro for some of the 440 yards he picked up this year.

Tim Boziack, 21, covered a lot of ground in racking up 764 yards of total offense. Here, Bruce Henry, 61, George Goodloe, 83, and Rodney Phillips, 33, sprint downfield to block as Boziack reels off another big gain.

The effectiveness of quarterback Wayne Cox, 11, was dampened in the mud battle with the Little Giants as he is stopped around end. But later Cox came back to salvage a tie for Lee with an 80 yard touchdown pass to George Goodloe.

Wayne Cox, 11, connected with his receivers for 725 yards for the season. Here he throws over the arms of a Harrisonburg Blue Streak.

Randy Sumey, 26, cuts off a block by Ken McAllister, 30, and beefs up his average of five yards per carry.

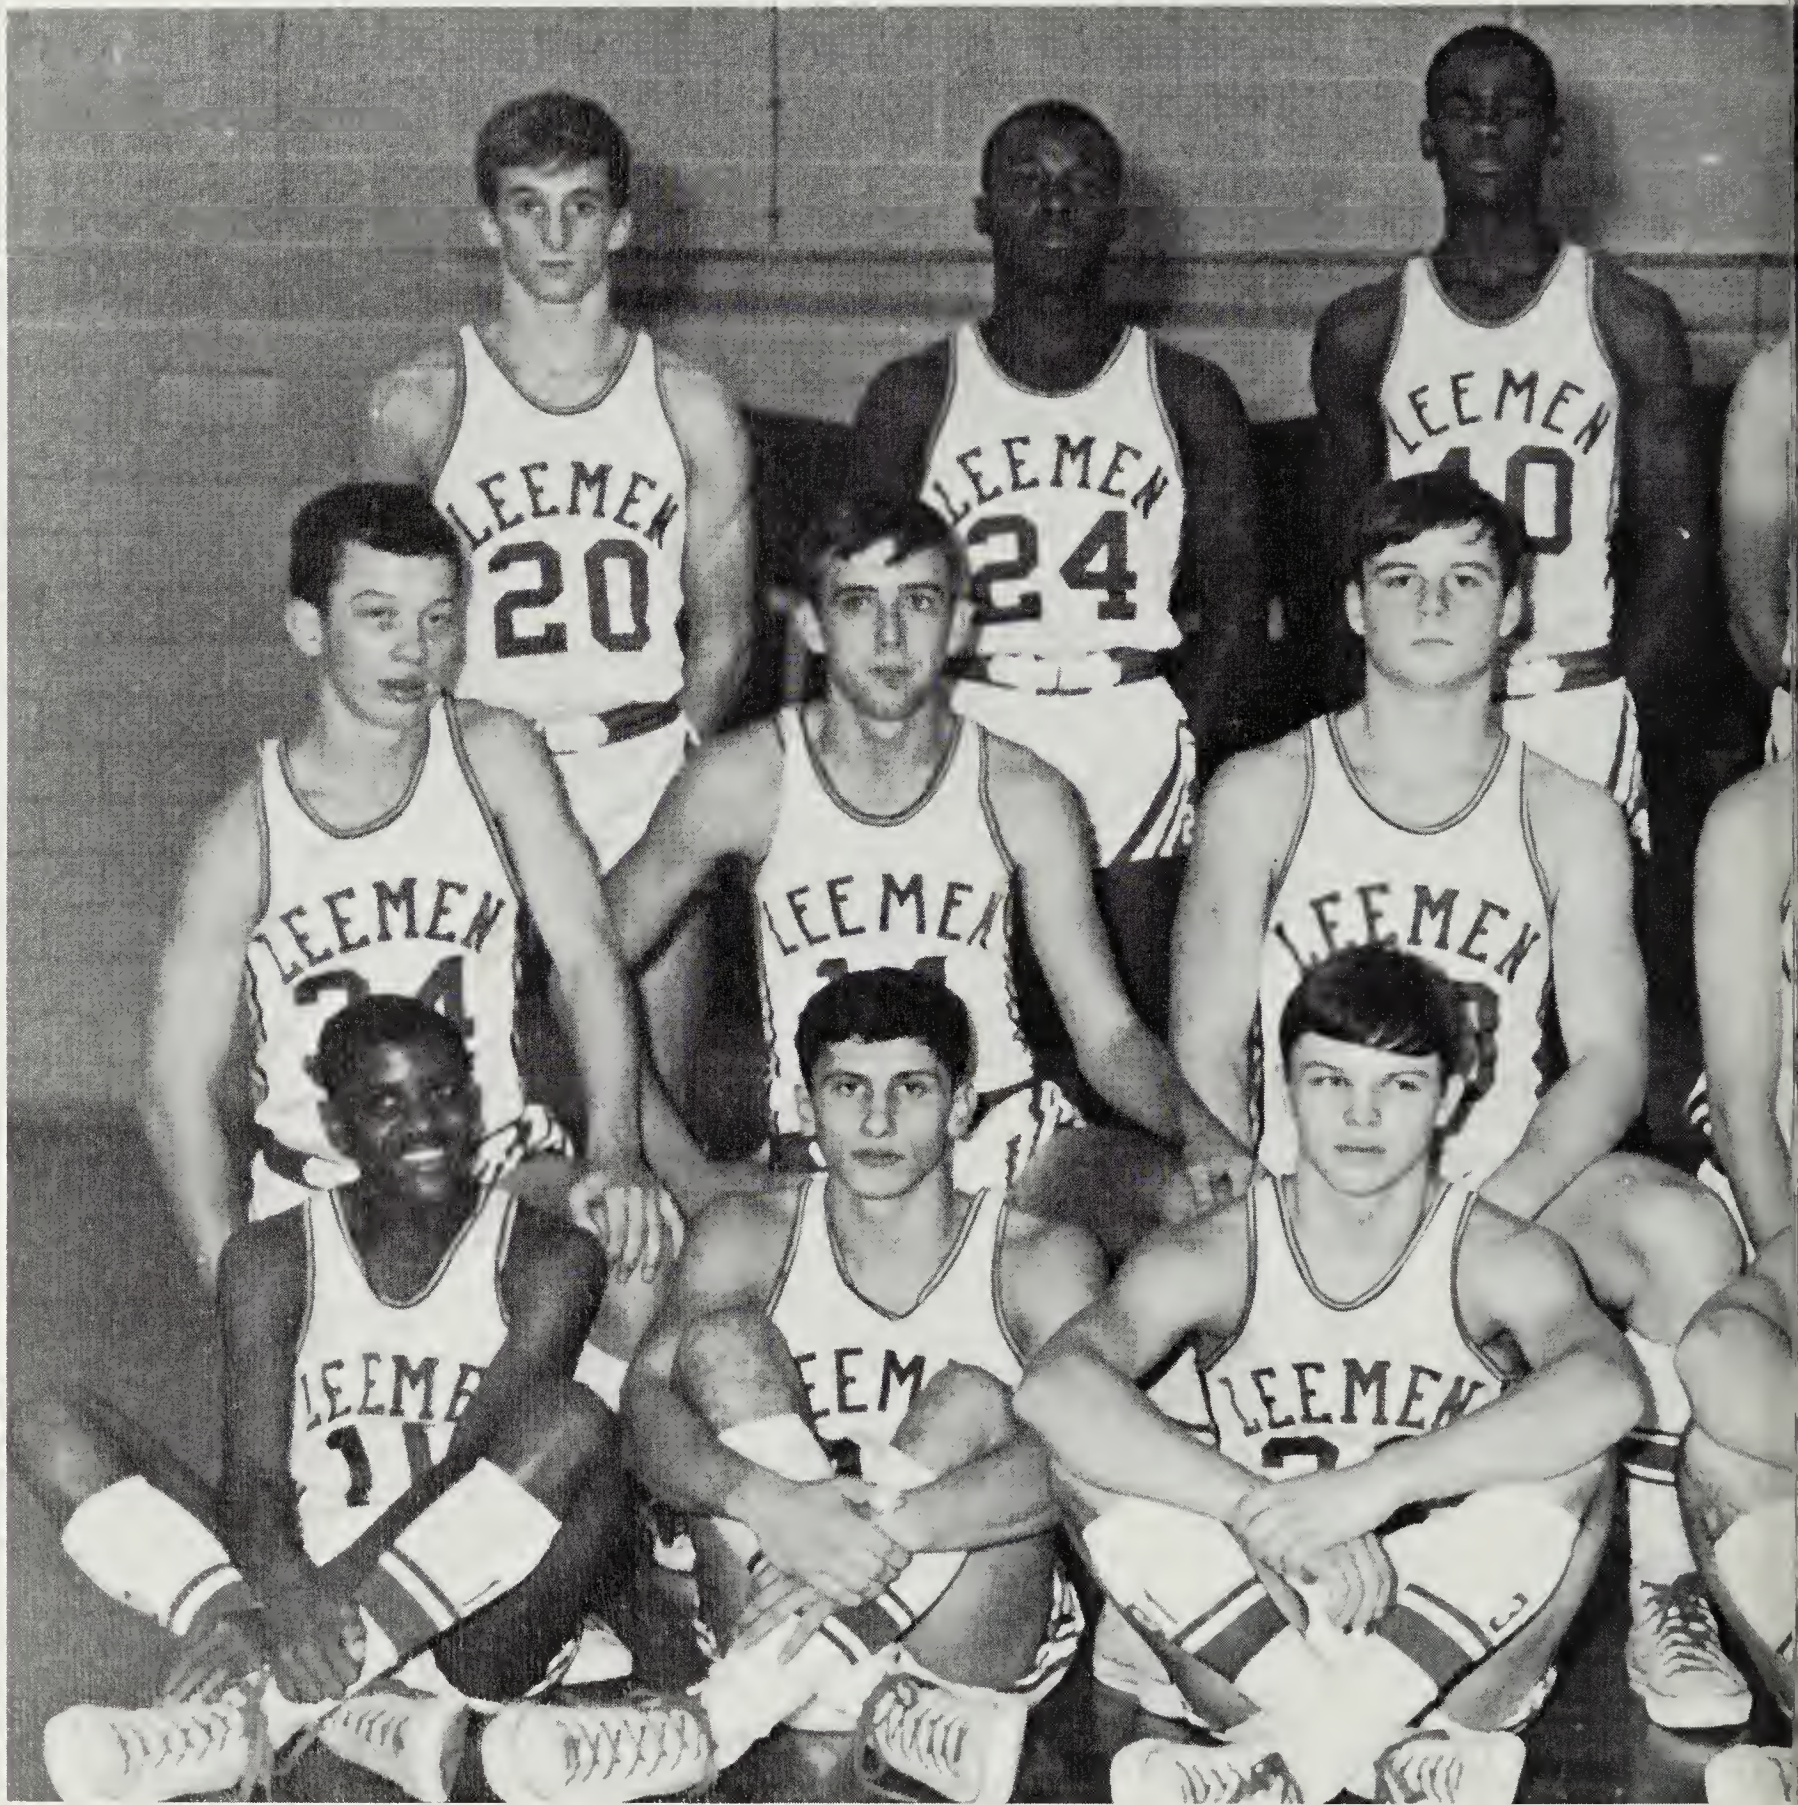

Tim Boziack, 21, races through a gaping hole opened by George Goodloe, 83, and heads for one of his five touchdowns in the Wilson game.

Though desperately out-heighted Ken McAllister, 50, displays the dogged determination that was typical of the Leemen.

Tim Boxiack, 54, proved his prowess not only on the gridiron but on the basketball courts as the Lee center rammed in two points against Natural Bridge.

George Goodloe, 20, takes advantage of Woody Dixon's, 52, screen to pump in two points against Wilson.

Jamie Simmons, 22, sets up a play as he tries to work the ball toward the basket.

Pat Stewart's patented jump shot made him leading scorer for the Leemen.

Bruce Ralson, 14, and Tim Bosiack struggle to haul down a rebound against Buena Vista.

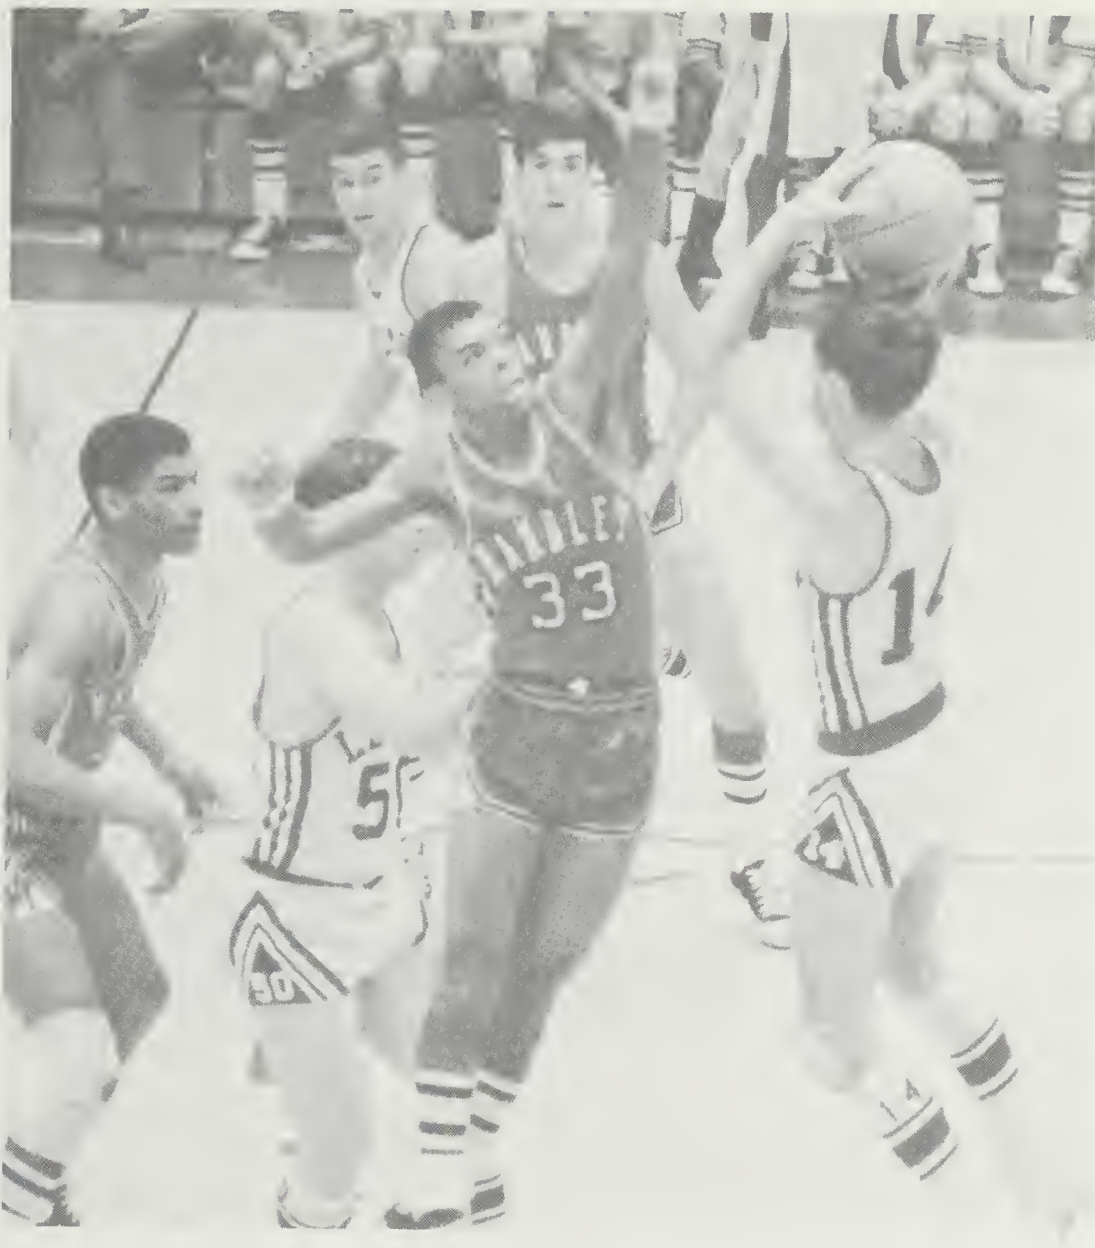

Sophomore John Todd gets his first taste of varsity action as he forces a jump with Harrisonburg's Bill Johnson.

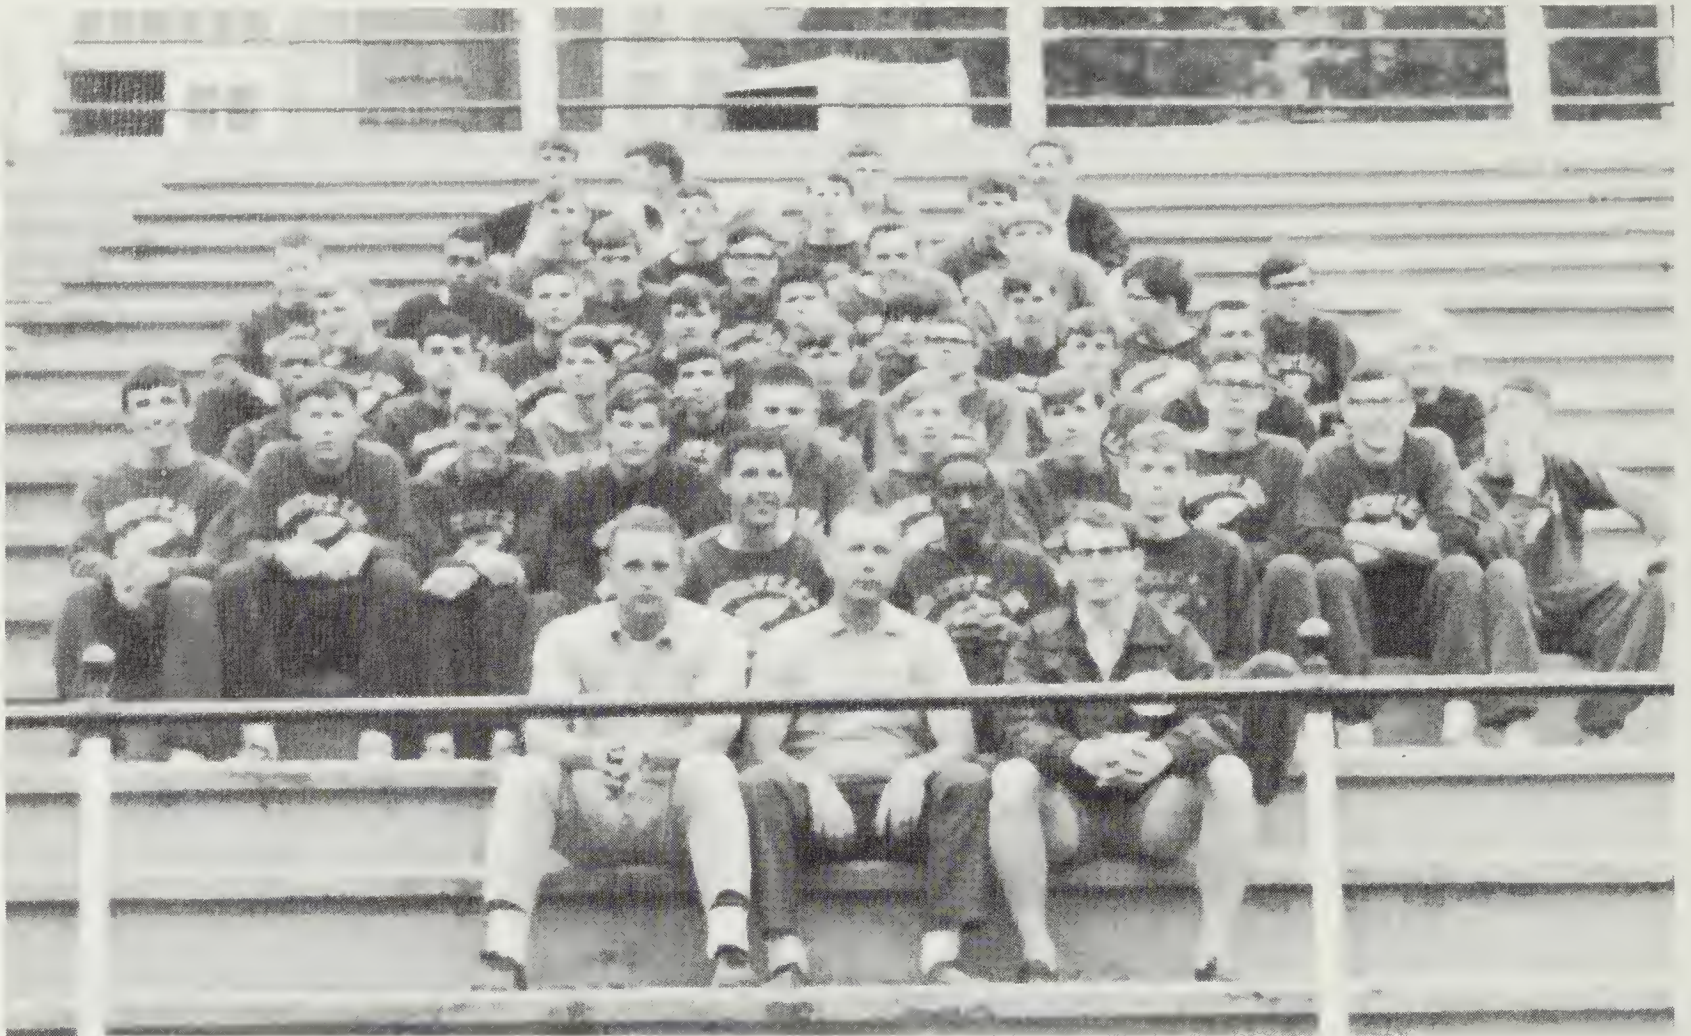

Donnie Wease, 12, was an integral part of the Lee squad until he broke his foot. Here he puts on a fine move against Waynesboro.

Bruce Ralston, 14, tosses in 2 points against Handley with a jump shot from just outside of the key.

Senior Pat Stewart, 44, found the middle open against Natural Bridge and drove in for an easy basket.
